OPERA PINA COLADA

L'oscar's name and feather symbol pays tribute to the world-famous writer Oscar Wilde. It ties into the literacy and history of the area, as it was home to a group of associated writers, philosophers and artists including Virginia Woolf, E.M Forster and Lytton Strachey, known as the 'Bloomsbury Set'.

L'OSCAR CHAPELLE

Originally built as the Headquarters of the Baptist Church, part of the building was once the chapel for the Church, dating back to 1856. Now Grade II listed and considered a particularly important building, one of the grand features of the hotel is the beautiful octagonal dome in The Baptist.*

LA VIE EN ROSE

Famous designer and architect, Jacques Garcia, designed his first London hotel here at L'oscar. True to his style, the Frenchman showcased some of his signature designs by using animal and bird motifs throughout the intricate fabrics, a butterfly casing as well as 495 crystal bird lights.
